

liz lapidus public relations

ATL INSIDER

“Festive Family Treats and Eats”

December 7, 2011

By Alyson Kate

<http://atlinsider.atlanta.net/blogs/adashofdecadence/archive/2011/12/07/festive-family-treats-and-eats.aspx>

Atlanta sparkles with the lights of the holiday season and the cheer of the people who call the city home. In a city full of delectable dishes, the holidays are the perfect chance to highlight the best of Atlanta’s festive dining scene. Whether your family is continuing old holiday traditions or creating new ones, there are plenty of memorable meals to go around in Atlanta!

Teddy Bear Brunch

Livingston Restaurant + Bar

Dec. 10 and 11, 17 and 18

11 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Indulge in a delicious brunch before seeing The Nutcracker at the Fox Theater. On the two weekends before Christmas, all children 12 and under who bring in a 12” or larger stuffed animal to Livingston Restaurant will receive a free brunch. All bears will be donated to the Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta hospitals before Christmas. Make new friends, memories and traditions by spread holiday cheer to those in need this year!