Harvest Midtown Wine Experience Nov. 13th Offers Entertainment, Wine & Food

Midtown Atlanta event supports Ayan's Fund

On Saturday, November 13th from 2PM until 6PM, the Harvest Midtown Wine Experience will come to life as new food & wine event on Peachtree Street as a walking tour that includes stops at three outstanding fine dining restaurants in Midtown Atlanta. Livingston, Baraonda & Straits restaurants will feature cuisine from some of the city’s top chefs paired with various wines from around the globe. Admission includes a glass of wine & small food plate at each restaurant plus four wine tastings along with live entertainment.

The event will feature a DJ, two jazz acts & dancers with Caló Gitano Flamenco Dance Company, Rio Negro Latin Jazz Trio, Mike Green Jazz Trio & DJ Suspense spinning acid jazz & down tempo music.

Wine samples from four wineries will be poured from Bacco Fine Wines, Freixenet USA, Tamburlaine Vineyards and The Naked Grape. Jim Ellis Audi will showcase their newest cars at each restaurant that day.

A portion of the ticket sales and 100% of the silent auction will benefit the Ayan's Fund charity. Ayan is a 6 year old boy from the Atlanta area who was diagnosed with pediatric brain tumors 2 years ago and his family has an enormous amount of unpaid medical bills since he was dropped from his health insurance. More info on this amazing child can be found at <http://forayan.weebly.com/>.

Tickets are only $40 in advance & $45 at door and are available now at www.harvestmidtown.com.

Event Producers: Trend Setting Productions & USA Entertainment Inc have over thirty years of combined special event production experience. Past events include the Wing & Rock Fest in four markets throughout the Southeast, Downtown Countdown New Year’s Eve, Harvest Midtown Wine Festival & the Rock’n Rib Fest.
