THE ATLANTAN

“Food Drink Guide”
May-June 2011

Livingston

This ultra-glam restaurant located in the Georgian Terrace Hotel is modern and elegant, yet still manages to incorporate much of the hotel's historical architecture. The menu is equally sensational and features butter-poached lobster, lamb chops and beef short ribs. The outdoor terrace is always hopping and perfect for people-watching on Peachtree, especially when there's a show at the Fox Theatre. 659 Peachtree St., 404.897.5000, livingstonatlanta.com $$ [SEE FOOD
