“On the Town Atlanta: In Brief” August 2010

RECIPES FOR REVELRY Atlanta has recently welcomed an impressive number of new hotels—from hip to luxurious—and a few classics underwent massive renovations. The result? A party scene that’s anchored by hotel hotspots, each of which offers a mix of reasons to settle in for the night.

2 parts see-and-be-seen + 1 part Buckhead sophistication with a splash of the signature West Paces Mary cocktail = The St. Regis Bar

3 parts breathtaking view + 1 part Midtown chic with weekly drink specials on top = 11 Stories at The Glenn Hotel

2 parts craft cocktails + 2 parts alfresco seating with a dash of “Good Eats” small plates = AltoRex Rooftop Lounge at Hotel Palomar

1 part modern décor + 2 parts laidback lounge with a post-Fox Theatre-show crowd for garnish = Livingston Bar at The Georgian Terrace
